CORE COMMITTEE: INDIRECT TAXATION COMMITTEE

Applicable for the term 2024 - 2025

Specific Responsibilities of the Indirect Taxation Committee for the term 2024 – 2025

During the above-captioned term, the Indirect Taxation Committee shall be responsible to:

- (a) Continue establishing closer ties with the Malta Tax and Customs Administration.
- (b) Monitor developments at a European level and develop guidance accordingly.
- (c) Participate in consultation requests or any other request for feedback issued by national and/or international authorities and bodies.
- (d) Keep the Institute's members informed of any significant developments and where appropriate to provide them with guidance.
- (e) Monitor indirect tax developments, including the review of new laws.
- (f) Establish and foster dialogue between the Institute and the relevant authorities by holding regular meetings and/or other means.
- (g) Collaborate with other MIA Committees or Groups as necessary.
- (h) Perform any other responsibilities as delegated by the Institute.

During the first meeting of the Indirect Taxation Committee, the chairperson together with the deputy chairperson and the Committee members are to discuss and include in the Committee's responsibilities for the term:

- (a) any other matters of current interest to the Institute's members; and
- (b) the projects to be worked on and concluded during the term, within the remit of these Terms of Reference.

The initial agenda and list of projects should be updated during the term of the Committee to take into consideration the exigencies of the profession. Any item on the agenda must be in line with the Institute's strategy.

Meetings

The Indirect Taxation Committee shall meet as and when necessary but not less than four (4) meetings shall be held every year.

Attendance and contribution will be monitored and reviewed on an ongoing basis. Council shall have the discretion to remove Committee members who do not attend and/or contribute during Committee meetings.

The chairperson of the Indirect Taxation Committee will set an agenda for each meeting after conferring with the deputy chairperson, the other Committee members and the Institute's representative. The agenda and any relevant documentation will be circulated amongst the Committee members in advance as practical.

Agenda and minutes of meetings shall only be communicated via the channel identified by the Institute.
